AFTER DINNER

---

---

Inniskillin Vidal Ice Wine | Canada [2oz] $12

Billowing with ripe peaches and apricots on the nose combined with delicious overtones of marmalade and candied brown sugar. Perfect on its own as dessert, or an excellent match to fresh fruit, rich paté or fine blue-veined and cream based cheeses.

Vikre Boreal Juniper Gin | Duluth MN $6.5

Piney juniper aromas intermingle with distinctly floral and citrusy aromas like lemon zest and rhubarb. Flavors of rhubarb, orange, and cardamom are underlain by the subtle spice of pink peppercorns.

Øvrevann Aquavit | Duluth MN $6.5

Øvrevann, Norwegian for "Upper Lake," aquavit is the original Scandinavian distilled spirit. Infused with caraway and cardamom, fundamental spices in Scandinavian cuisine. An early Norwegian version was aged in oak barrels on ocean voyages to Australia. According to Norwegian lore, t'was something magic about the trips across the equator that made it so delicious. Great served ice cold.

Remy Martin V. S. Petite Champagne Cognac $6.5

A distinct round smooth cognac with subtle aromas.

Far North Alander Spiced Rum | Minnesota $6.5

The name Ålander (\OH•LAN•DER\ ) is a nod to the Åland islands, an archipelago of 6,500 islands between Sweden and Finland in the northern Baltic. Alander is made in the Red River Valley, using sugar cane and spiced with whole bean vanilla, cinnamon, allspice and cloves. A hint of espresso lends a surprising depth of flavor.

Courvoisier $6.5

Crafted with blends heralding from the Fins Bois and a petite Champagne crus.

Dow Ruby Port $6.5

Bright raspberry and cherry flavors marry well with cocoa powder and mineral notes with a drier finish.
